

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1

PROPOSED COURSE FOR DD/A PERSONNEL

A four-hour-a-week six-week course designed to give DD/A personnel a basic knowledge of intelligence, intelligence organization, and the Communist movement. The course will consist of lectures supplemented by seminars and readings.

SCHEDULE

FIRST WEEK

Tuesday, 1500 - 1600	Introduction to Course (Its Aim and Functions) Security and Administrative Briefings
1600 - 1700	History of American Intelligence (A historical approach to the subject showing the development of American Intelligence from the Revolution to the creation of the CIA in 1947.)
Thursday, 1500 - 1600	Principles of Intelligence (Definitions of Intelligence as organization, as activity, and as knowledge, with particular emphasis on collection, production, and dissemination as phases of the intelligence activity.)
1600 - 1700	Seminar (Report by a student on Sherman Kent's "Strategic Intelligence" followed by a group discussion.)

SECOND WEEK

Tuesday, 1500 - 1600	Divisions of Intelligence (Kinds of Intelligence, divided as to area, substantive components, and scope)
1600 - 1700	National Security Organization of the U. S. (The National Security Council and the Intelligence Community.)

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1

- 2 -

SECOND WEEK (Contd.)

Thursday, 1500 - 1600

Operations
(The Nature and Types of Clandestine Operations)

1600 - 1700

Seminar
(Report by a student on the [redacted]
[redacted] followed by a group discussion.)

THIRD WEEK

Tuesday, 1500 - 1600

Organization of CIA
(Mission and functions of the various offices)

1600 - 1700

End-Products of Intelligence Processing
(What the finished product looks like; publications, oral briefings, etc.)

Thursday, 1500 - 1600

Intelligence and Policy
(The role of Intelligence in the formulation of foreign policy.)

1600 - 1700

Seminar
(Report by a student on George Kennan's book
"American Diplomacy", followed by a group discussion.)

FOURTH WEEK

Tuesday, 1500 - 1700

Communist Theory
(Marxism - Leninism - Stalinism; Bolshevik Revolution)

Thursday, 1500 - 1600
1600 - 1700

Communist Party Strategy and Tactics
Seminar

(Report by a student on Waldemar Gurian's
"Bolshevism: An Introduction to Soviet Communism", followed by a group discussion.)

FIFTH WEEK

Tuesday, 1500 - 1700

Geography of the U.S.S.R.
(Lecture and discussion)

Thursday, 1500 - 1700

Industrial and Scientific Potential of the U.S.S.R.
(Lecture and discussion)

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1

- 3 -

SIXTH WEEK

Tuesday, 1500 - 1700 Military Capabilities of the U.S.S.R.
(Lecture and discussion)

Thursday, 1500 - 1600 Final Examination

1600 - 1700 Critique and Closing of Course

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1